Efsixteen stands out in St Hugh's

By Josh Luckhurst, Press Association

Efsixteen can maintain the unbeaten start to her career despite stepping up to a smart level on only her second appearance in the Listed Visit Malta St Hugh's Stakes at Newbury. George Scott's Havana Grey filly has not been seen since making a winning debut at Newmarket in May when she sealed a half-length success, justifying market support. The third and fourth in that novice have gone on to land Listed honours at home and abroad, franking the form nicely. Not cheap at 350,000 guineas, she can repay a bit more of that in the hands of Tom Marquand. George Boughey's Evenfall is another who is looking to make it two from two in the BetVictor EBF Fillies' Conditions Stakes. She was a cosy winner on debut at Yarmouth last month when defeating Minster Man by a length and three-quarters. The Robert Cowell-trained runner-up subsequently won by the same margin on his next start in a lucrative novice contest in Musselburgh, looking a nice type himself. Boughey, reeling from the retirement of unbeaten superstar Bow Echo on Tuesday, will have Billy Loughnane on board his runner, who has Mill Reef, Rockfel and Cheveley Park Stakes entries which hopefully gives an indication of the regard in which she is held. In the preceding Highclere Horse Feeds EBF Fillies' Novice Stakes, Al Samsama can score again for Richard Hughes. William Buick maintains his partnership with the daughter of Blue Point, who steps up to seven furlongs this time around. Dylan Cunha's Zarathos can regain the winning thread in the Racing TV Handicap at Newmarket. The four-year-old picked up a quickfire double in May before going down by a neck when stepping up in grade at Epsom a month later. He has finished in midfield on both starts since - including when favourite for a valuable handicap at the Curragh - and the South African trainer has a consistent sort who came third on his only start at his local track. At Epsom, Tansy Lane has faced some interesting sorts in her two career starts and can build on those experiences in the Betfred 'Bet Builder' EBF Fillies' Novice Stakes. James Owen's daughter of Palace Pier, who is owned by the Gredley family, was sixth on debut at Yarmouth before finishing seventh last time out at Newmarket. However, she was only two lengths behind Godolphin's winner Acting Lady, who runs in the aforementioned St Hugh's Stakes, and third-placed Speed Of Sound has valuable entries in the coming weeks. It is hard to look past Matins in the Download The Quinnbet App "Confined" Novice Stakes at Yarmouth, while Rock Montreal, who Godolphin bought for 1,000,000 guineas as a yearling, makes his debut in the British Stallion Studs EBF Novice Stakes. Wathnan Racing's Final Objective eases in class in a bid to earn his first victory in the opening Ray And Eileen McLean Memorial British EBF Maiden Stakes at Thirsk. Retained rider James Doyle makes the trip to North Yorkshire for one of only three rides on the card, all of which have chances.
