Almeraq can sprint to it at Haydock

By Chris Phillips, Press Association

Almeraq bids to get back on the winning trail in the Betfair Sprint Cup Stakes at Haydock. The Dark Angel colt made his seasonal debut in the Cathedral Stakes at Salisbury in May, laying down his challenge at the furlong marker and keeping on well to hold off Spy Chief by a neck. That set him up for the Queen Elizabeth II Jubilee Stakes at Royal Ascot and he duly obliged at the highest level for the first time, getting up close home to head international raiders Satono Reve and Joliestar. But he came unstuck in the July Cup at Newmarket when badly drawn and raced without the cover that brings out the best in him, eventually finishing ninth of the 11 runners. A line can be put through that run and he has won with cut in the ground. Colori Forever can strike at Group level for the first time in the Betfair Backs Opinions Superior Mile Stakes. The Marco Botti-trained three-year-old won impressively at Southwell when he debuted this season and a runner-up finish at Newbury was followed by a win in a valuable Ascot handicap in May. That saw him dip into Group company in the Jersey Stakes before lowering his sights in Listed company in the Sir Henry Cecil Stakes where he was beaten only two and three-quarter lengths stepped up to a mile, finishing strongly. And going back up to Group Three level he can learn from experience and come out on top on his second try at eight furlongs. The Charlie Appleby-trained First Law can maintain his unbeaten record in the Listed Betfair Celebrates Bow Echo Ascendant Stakes. He raced keenly on his debut in a Sandown maiden and hit the front half a furlong out, staying on well to win and the experience can be to his benefit as he steps up in grade. Constitution Hill is taken to overcome the toughest test of Flat career to date in the William Hill September Stakes at Kempton. The nine-year-old won the Champion Hurdle at the Cheltenham Festival in 2023, but his hurdling career began to unravel and a change to the level and drop in trip to a mile and a half has brought a new lease of life to the Nicky Henderson-trained gelding. He was brilliant on his Flat debut at Southwell and followed that up went sent off a 1-7 favourite at Kempton, so we know the surface at the Sunbury track suits. Billy Loughnane rides for the first time which is hardly a negative. Elsewhere, Heyzoom is taken to defy a 5lb rise in the weights to come out on top in Ascot's feature tote.co.uk Money Back 2nd Handicap.
