BRIGHTON DRAW:

Much depends on the going and time of year. On good to soft or slower ground runners often head for the outside rail, while in late season it’s usually just a case of whichever jockey finds the least cut up strip of ground. Otherwise, low-drawn prominent-racers tent to hold sway in fast ground sprints, with double figures always facing an uphill task over 5f59yds.

HAYDOCK DRAW:

High numbers used to enjoy a major advantage in soft-ground sprints and there were signs last year that this bias has returned. Otherwise, runners usually head for the centre these days, the draw rarely much of a difference.

High numbers are best over 5f and preferable over 6f, while those drawn very low over 7f often have a bit to do. Otherwise, pace of races counts for a lot and this is one of the fairest courses around in that respect.

CARLISLE DRAW:

Runner racing with the pace and hardest against the inside rail (high) do well in big fields on decent ground. This is largely down to the fact that the flat course and NH course are the same, and that those racing nearest the fence are running where the hurdle wings were (low) and grabbing the stands' rail in the straight favoured at all distances.

AUSTRIAN SCHOOL IS TOP OF MUSSELBURGH CLASS

By Keith Hamer, Press Association Sport

Austrian School can pass the stamina examination that is the Queen's Cup Stakes with flying colours at Musselburgh.The four-year-old will have been well prepared by his trainer Mark Johnston in preparation for this valuable test over a mile and three-quarters. The son of Teofilo displayed plenty of promise as a young stayer last season, and showed he comes to hand early by winning his first two starts.He may not have got his head in front again last term, but he ran well on numerous occasions - both in handicaps and at Listed level. This could well be the season he comes into his own.Johnston can initiate a double with Reggae Runner in the Royal Mile Handicap. The Lethal Force colt has improved for each of his three runs inside a month,culminating in victory at Lingfield in February. Although this will be the first time he has encountered turf in public, he no doubt will know what is expected from Johnston's gallops at Middleham and be primed for a return to action.The Scottish Sprint Cup Handicap has a fiendish look to it - but it has proved nothing of the sort for Mick Appleby twice in the last five years, including with Caspian Prince 12 months ago.This time, the Oakham trainer has Saaheq nestling near the foot of the weightsfor his return to the turf after a consistent winter on the all-weather. The five-year-old was a short-head runner-up on his most recent start at Southwell two weeks ago, and generally races as if this return to the shortest distance will suit him fine.Agrotera burst on the scene in 2018 with victory in the Sandringham Handicap at Royal Ascot, but just failed to strike at Listed level on her three subsequent\starts.Ed Walker's filly can put that right in the Racing TV Snowdrop Fillies'

Stakesat Kempton on her seasonal debut.Walker has never lost faith in the four-year-old, who could well come into her own this season.Cayirli lifted the Racing TV Queen's Prize Handicap off a mark of 92 last year and bids for a repeat from 11lb lower despite a course-and-distance triumph in February.Seamus Durack must fancy the seven-year-old's chances of back-to-back victories.Ignatius has failed to justify market confidence as a beaten favourite on his last two starts, but better can be expected in the DS Derby Salon Handicap at Nottingham.John est's three-year-old is down 2lb for his sixth of 14 at Lingfield last time, and he can break his duck on his switch back to turf.Lunar Deity may be at the sprightly old age of 10, but he has already won twice this year. Stuart Williams' charge can make it three in the Streamline Taxis 01273 202020 Handicap at Brighton, where he is a course regular.Haydock's Challenger Stayers Hurdle Series Final Handicap Hurdle is typicallycompetitive - but Ian Williams' relative veteran Faithful Mount has been knocking on the door of late in decent races and may hit the jackpot this time.Irish raider A Place Apart can land the spoils in the Challenger Middle Distance Chase Series Final Handicap Chase.Gavin Cromwell's five-year-old has enjoyed his jaunts to British shores in the past. Successful at Kempton in October, he was third at Aintree in December -and has not raced since.That was a qualifier for this race, and the Champion Hurdle-winning trainer's patience looks like being rewarded.
