Jerseygeordie can take Hereford honours

By Chris Phillips, Press Association

Jerseygeordie can get his nose in front for the first time in the Download The Attheraces App Juvenile Maiden Hurdle at Hereford. The three-year-old, who won on the Flat in Jersey before his switch to Harry Derham, came third on debut over obstacles at Newton Abbot before improving to a runner-up finish at Sedgefield. Those experiences can only help and his opening mark of 102 could leave him with plenty of room for manoeuvre going forward. Graceful Glance can make a winning start to her season in the Tigerbet.Co.UK Download Our App mares' Novices' Hurdle. The four-year-old had a pair of close-up second-place finishes at Stratford and Leicester last season before ending her campaign with a disappointing effort at Ludlow. But refreshed after a summer off she can put that behind her and has shown plenty to encourage a bold run and she can start on a high and break her maiden. Hello Sweety is taken to get back on the right track in the Betting.Bet Free Bets mares' Handicap Hurdle. She won at Fakenham in May before being second behind serial winner Beorma at Market Rasen and was then only three lengths behind No More Bolero back at the Lincolnshire circuit. Hello Sweety followed that up with victory at Bangor before being pulled up on her last outing at Stratford. But a line can easily be drawn through that effort as the daughter of Sea The Moon effectively refused to race, losing considerable ground at the start before Charlie Hammond decided to call it a day after the second hurdle and pulled her up. The William Haggas-trained Iron Stone Lad can strike at the third time of asking in the EBF "Double Trigger" Novice Stakes at Redcar. The Cracksman colt has been second on both starts so far, most recently when odds on at York after a promising debut at Newbury. He kept on well enough on the Knavesmire and should be all the better for those runs and this step up to nine furlongs. Blanquita can get her career up and running in the Christmas Parties At Leicester Racecourse - Book Now Nursery Handicap at Leicester. The Dylan Cunha-trained daughter of Lope Y Fernandez was fourth on debut when reluctant to enter the stalls but was far happier on her next visit to the racecourse when she was only beaten one and a half lengths into second at Beverley. She was then tried at a mile for the first time at Haydock but did not stay the trip in finishing fifth of seven runners. Dropped to seven furlongs she gave a better account of himself back at the Merseyside track in second to the in-form Crazy Cubana. She remains feasibly treated on a mark of 65 and will not mind how much rain falls. Divine Symmetry is the pick in the Unibet's New Var Goal Guarantee Novice Stakes at Kempton. The Hugo Palmer-trained three-year-old was only beaten a neck by William Haggas' Weffaag at Newcastle and can go one better.
