RULING COURT GETS GUINEAS VERDICT

By Anita Chambers, PA

Ruling Court can make it three wins in four years for Charlie Appleby in the Betfred 2000 Guineas. Coroebus got the Godolphin handler off the mark in the Newmarket Classic in 2022 before Notable Speech added a second triumph for the team 12 months ago. The Justify colt - who significantly is the pick of stable jockey William Buick over Shadow Of Light - was a Sandown maiden winner at the first time of asking last July, prompting Appleby to raise his sights to Group Three level when sent off favourite for the Acomb at York. He perhaps did not have the best draw when coming home third to The Lion In Winter, but it was nevertheless a decent effort and he already has a win on his tally this year, having won the Jumeirah 2000 Guineas at Meydan in March. Ruling Court's six-length dismissal of The Fingal Raven does not amount to much in terms of form, but he demonstrated he stays the mile trip and showed a very nice turn of foot in the process. Beautiful Diamond can gain compensation for a narrow defeat last year by landing the Hong Kong Jockey Club World Pool Palace House Stakes. Karl Burke's charge was beaten just a neck in third behind the reopposing Seven Questions before soft ground proved her undoing when sent off favourite for the Temple Stakes at Haydock. Connections opted to go in search of a Listed triumph at Ayr rather than tackle an Ascot aim and the decision paid dividends as she dead-heated for first before just being edged out at Group Two level in the Sapphire Stakes. Both the first and third that day are subsequent Group One scorers and while Beautiful Diamond did not hit the target in either of her two following runs, she ended the year on a mark of 104, which leaves her favourably treated without any kind of penalty here. Unequal Love ended last year on a disappointing note but can get back on the winning track with a repeat success in the Oddschecker British EBF Ellen Chaloner Stakes. William Haggas' mare landed this Listed prize first time up before going on to win the ultra-competitive Wokingham at Royal Ascot and come within a length of Group One gold when third in the Haydock Sprint Cup. Tenth of 20 on Champions Day at Ascot, Unequal Love was actually beaten less than five lengths in a blanket finish on ground that would have been softer than ideal. Crimson Advocate looks to have found her new niche at a mile and is the pick in the racingclub.com Conqueror Fillies' Stakes at Goodwood. A Queen Mary winner a couple of years ago, she made a promising move from sprint distances when beaten just a nose in the Snowdrop Stakes at Kempton in March and could now be finding her stride for the in-form Gosden team. It is the final day of action at the Punchestown Festival and Cheltenham redemption could be very much the theme. Brighterdaysahead lines up in the SBK Irish EBF Mares Champion Hurdle after failing to sparkle in the Champion Hurdle itself, fading fast when she suffered significant interference at the final flight. She never looked like winning that day but returned to mixing it with her own sex and back up to two and a half miles, Brighterdaysahead can finish on a high. Lulamba can reverse Cheltenham form with Poniros in the Ballymore Champion Four Year Old Hurdle. The 100-1 shot swooped in the dying strides to deny Nicky Henderson's charge in the Triumph, but Lulamba did not enjoy a perfect passage and having got the better of East India Dock did not have time to respond to Poniros on his outside.
