GO FOR GOMEZ AT WOLVERHAMPTON

By Anita Chambers, PA

Wadacre Gomez has rarely run a bad race this winter and can keep up the good work in the Boost Your Acca-Fenwa With BetUK Handicap at Wolverhampton. The Brazen Beau colt has been running pretty regularly since making his racecourse bow last February, chalking up four wins along the way – most recently when triumphing at Chelmsford on his penultimate run at the start of this month. Racing off a mark of 79 on that occasion, Wadacre Gomez put behind him a disappointing run in better company when winning by just short of two lengths over 10 furlongs at Chelmsford.

He kept on well after making all – posting a career best in the process – and again showed a good attitude when narrowly failing to defy a subsequent 5lb penalty when second over the same course and distance he faces here. Wadacre Gomez was technically 1lb wrong that day and is 2lb well in this time, a factor which is a definite positive for his chances.

Alrazeen is the choice in the BetUK. It's Where The UK Bets Restricted Novice Stakes. A 100-1 outsider on debut, he belied those odds to finish fourth and was a much skinnier price at the second time of asking, sent off an 11-10 chance. He duly proved too sharp for the race favourite, although he was getting 15lb, powering home by a length and a half and looking reasonably good value in the process.
