DJELO BACKED TO BE ON SONG AGAIN

AT LINGFIELD

By Anita Chambers, PA

Djelo can highlight a big-race double for Venetia Williams on the final day of Lingfield's Winter Million Festival. The six-year-old was supposed to go for gold on Friday but after a frozen track claimed that card, the Download The Racing App Now Lightning Novices' Chase was transferred to this fixture.

A delay of a couple of days should make little difference for the likeable type, who has really come of age over fences and is bidding for a fourth successive win here. He beat the reopposing Master Chewy on his initial start, albeit getting weight that day, before a cosy Newbury verdict and an impressive Grade Two score at Ascot before Christmas.

That was not the strongest race for its grade, but Djelo's all-the-way win over Kandoo Kid was quite striking and he seems to be making strides with every run now. Stable star L'Homme Presse returns to action in the Fitzdares Fleur De Lys Chase, returning from a 391-day absence following an injury sustained when unseating his rider in the 2022 King George.

Prior to that mishap, he had looked a proper Gold Cup hope, having won the Brown Advisory in his novice campaign and made a successful seasonal return under top weight in the Rehearsal Chase at Newcastle. L'Homme Presse has won first time up in each of his three seasons with Williams, which bodes well, as does the fact the conditions of the race favour him in that he is getting 4lb from Protektorat despite being rated 5lb his superior.

The King Of Prs takes the eye in the Download The Racing App Now Godstone Handicap Chase, as he travels from Ireland for Gavin Cromwell, while Gowel Road should appreciate easier company in the Weatherbys Hamilton Handicap Hurdle. He contested the Grade One Long Walk Hurdle before Christmas but found Crambo far too good, with this contest competitive but not of that class. Bonttay can make amends for a late departure last time by winning the Sky Bet

Request A Bet Mares' Handicap Hurdle at Fakenham. She looked sure to take a hand in the finish at Cheltenham last month before unshipping her jockey at the penultimate flight. Chelmsford stages another Sunday evening trial and Titan Rock merits close attention in the Injured Jockeys Fund Handicap.

Upped to an extended mile for the first time at Wolverhampton at the start of the month, Titan Rock sat midfield before trying to challenge in the final couple of furlongs. He failed to reel in two rivals who had raced more prominently that day, so his length defeat can be slightly upgraded and he remains 8lb below his highest-ever mark. Guy Fawkes is rated 78 as he lines up in the Ministry Of Sound Concert 31st August Handicap.

Having won first time out for Jane Chapple-Hyam, he had to settle for second when bumping into a potentially useful type under a penalty in a novice heat at this track last month. Connections now head into the handicap sphere and Guy Fawkes can make an immediate impact.
