YOU SOME GIRL CAN STRIKE GOLD AGAIN

By Nick Robson, PA

You Some Girl can defy a hefty rise in the weights and notch a fourth successive win in the Livescore Bet Best Odds Daily Handicap Hurdle at Musselburgh. The Rebecca Menzies-trained mare has been in rude health of late and is going back to the Edinburgh venue on the crest of a wave. She actually won on her racecourse debut in a Catterick bumper back in November 2022 but then went 15 races without a victory before her triumphant run tarded. It was not a huge shock when she prevailed at Newcastle in November as she had been running consistently well, just without getting her head in front. She fairly bolted up off a lowly mark of 84 and even saddled with a 7lb penalty at Catterick next time, she never needed to come out of third gear. Technically 8lb well-in last time out, she cruised through the contest looking in a different league to her rivals and having struck up a good partnership with Charlie Maggs, the winning spree can continue. Okavango Delta won well at the track last month and should be capable of going in again in the Virgin Bet Daily Price Boosts Handicap Chase. The eight-year-old stepped back up to two and a half miles on his most recent outing and it really suited. He now has his first go over three miles and given this is his 22nd run, it is perhaps surprising they have waited this long to try. Diva Luna should make a winning debut over obstacles in the Sky Sports Racing HD Virgin 519 Mares' Novices' Hurdle at Lingfield. Ben Pauling has some very nice prospects this season and Diva Luna is not far from the top of the pile. She won a Listed Market Rasen bumper on her debut under rules and then bagged the Grade Two mares' event at the Grand National meeting. Much the best there, the sky is the limit for her. Willie Mullins continues his tour of UK tracks with Full Confession in the Boost Your Acca At BetMGM Open National Hunt Flat Race. Patrick Mullins is over to ride, fresh from a winner at Wincanton on Thursday for Harry Derham, and given Full Confession has won an Irish point-to-point and a Fairyhouse bumper, you would imagine that form is stronger than anything else on offer in this race. Bushypark has won his fair share of races for Phil Kirby and now he is allowed to compete in races like the Stay Golden With BetMGM Safer Gambling Conditional Jockeys' Veterans' Handicap Chase, a new avenue is open to him. He is back down to a winnable mark and handles testing conditions well. Altmore could prove a cut above his rivals in the Extra Winnings With BetUK Acca Club Handicap at Newcastle. Trained by William Haggas, the three-year-old has only had four runs in his life and is unexposed compared to the rest of the field. He won two of those outings and finished a creditable fifth in a hot handicap at Doncaster at the end of the turf season.
