Star can shine brightest in Bath highlight

By Ashley Iveson, Press Association

Brilliant Star is expected to shine brightest in the British Stallion Studs EBF Beckford Stakes at Bath. John and Thady Gosden's string have really hit form in the last couple of weeks and with an official rating of 102, Brilliant Star sets the standard as she goes in search of Listed honours in Somerset. Bred to be top-class as a product of two of Anthony Oppenheimer's top performers in Cracksman and Star Catcher, the three-year-old looked destined for big things after impressing in a couple of novice events in the spring, but a disappointing effort in Goodwood's Height of Fashion Stakes halted her progress. However, she bounced back with an excellent effort when beaten just two lengths into fourth place in the Ribblesdale Stakes at Royal Ascot, briefly looking tapped for toe before staying on again in the final furlong. On that evidence a step up to a mile and three-quarters ought be right up Brilliant Star's street and assuming she is fit enough to do herself justice after almost four months off, she should take some beating. Chanter Le Blues can open her account in the EBF Fillies' Novice Stakes. A 100,000 guineas yearling purchase part-owned by Brighton & Hove Albion footballer Georginio Rutter, the daughter of Blue Point shaped with plenty of promise on her Windsor introduction in early May, vying for the lead for much of the way before fading into third. She has not been seen in competitive action since, but the natural pace she showed on debut suggests she should be suited by this drop from six to five furlongs. Eve Johnson Houghton's Galimix steps up in trip for the Seat Unique EBF Restricted Novice Stakes. The Blewbury handler's two-year-olds always merit respect and this gelding was an encouraging fourth first time out at Leicester recently, doing his best work at the finish and looking ready to tackle a mile. Empirestateofmind has rediscovered his form in recent weeks and is rated the best bet of the day at Ayr in the San Miguel Handicap. Rated 101 at his peak a few years ago, John and Sean Quinn’s charge had slid down to just 67 prior to his recent resurgence, which appears to have been brought about by softer ground. He won twice at this venue in September, with a narrow defeat at Hamilton sandwiched in between, and with conditions again his favour, the eight-year-old looks to have been found a good opportunity to add to his tally off a mark of 71 before his new rating kicks in. Princesse d’Orange has not really gone on since her sparkling debut, but there is cause for optimism ahead of the Follow @at.the.races On Instagram Nursery Handicap at Southwell. David O’Meara’s filly looked a serious Royal Ascot candidate after bolting up at Beverley first time out and she then ran in two Listed races, including a good effort when third in the National Stakes at Sandown. She was well held in the Queen Mary at the Royal meeting, though, and has since struggled in a conditions race at Goodwood before placing fourth on her handicap debut at Thirsk. The Cheveley Park Stud-owned youngster has a lot of speed, so if she can break smartly, perhaps racing around a bend as she switches to the all-weather will see her in a better light. Whitewinewednesday bids to make it back-to-back wins for Patrick Mullins in the Malton Marquees Novices’ Handicap Chase at Market Rasen. The seven-year-old provided the record-breaking amateur with a first Sedgefield success last week as he continues his quest to ride a winner at every National Hunt track in Britain. Whitewinewednesday is set to play a significant part in that challenge and has since switched from Willie Mullins to champion trainer Dan Skelton in the hope she can tick a few more courses off the list, starting with the Lincolnshire venue on Thursday.
