GALE FORCE MAYA CAN STORM HOME

By Tony Kelshaw, PA

Gale Force Maya has built up a fine record at Pontefract over the past few seasons and looks worth following in the EBF Stallions Highfield Farm Flying Fillies' Stakes. The Michael Dods-trained seven-year-old can boast two wins and three seconds from five outings at the West Yorkshire track, all over the six-furlongs trip she faces here. That record includes finishing runner-up to Princess Shabnam in this race 12 months ago, when slightly hampered by having to run three wide from an outside draw. This season, Gale Force Maya struggled on her first couple of outings at Newmarket and Haydock but there was a lot more to like about her latest effort at York. Connor Beasley had her well positioned throughout the Group Three Summer Stakes and she was only run out of second place in the closing stages. Gale Force Maya showed a good attitude that day, at another course where she has consistently run well, and there was no shame in going down to Commonwealth Cup third Swingalong and the useful Royal Acclaim. Chantilly Group Three scorer Believing would be a big threat if on her best behaviour but she has developed a worrying tendency to rear in the stalls and must carry a 5lb penalty for that French success. With the Dods yard in decent spirits of late, stablemate Wor Willie is also worth support in the Mary Clark 'Favourite Day Of The Year' Handicap over a mile and a half. The five-year-old gelding completed a course and distance double when gamely making all in the same event last term and has had a couple of spins this season to blow away the cobwebs. Carrying big weights does not seem to bother the son of Mukhadram and Paul Mulrennan will hopefully be able to control proceedings once again. At Southwell, Another Gift is fancied to follow up an impressive Windsor win by defying a 6lb penalty in the Vickers.bet App Nursery Handicap. Ed Dunlop's juvenile still showed clear signs of greenness that day - starting slowly, hanging badly left and flashing her tail under Oisin Murphy. However, once getting the hang of things, she powered clear for an emphatic victory and could still be ahead of the handicapper if coming on again for that experience. Hollie Doyle is on board this time, while Murphy heads to Sandown for what looks a strong book of rides. The three-time champion jockey kicks off by partnering Equity Law for Andrew Balding in the Sky Bet Sunday Series Nursery Handicap. This sprint-bred juvenile justified odds-on favouritism at Salisbury on his second start and then probably found the ground too testing when a well-backed fourth at Chester next time. Dropping down to five furlongs should not pose any problems and an opening handicap mark of 84 seems manageable. Murphy then moves on to Lil Guff, who has had a busy campaign but looked none the worse for wear when second at Windsor on Thursday. The four-year-old has coped well with quickly backing up a good run before and another bold showing is anticipated in the Sky Bet Sunday Series Sprint Handicap. All eyes will be on Reaching High in the Race To A Cure For MND Newcomers' Maiden Stakes, with Sir Michael Stoute's royal runner being by Sea The Stars out of Ascot Gold Cup winner Estimate.
