ORANDI TO MAKE LINCOLN MARK

By Molly Hunter, PA

Orandi can buck the trend and take the William Hill Lincoln back to Irish shores for Tony Martin. Doncaster's one-mile handicap heralds the start of the Flat turf season and has been the source of barely any success for the Irish, who have only won it once in its 172-year history. The race has an Irish counterpart called the Lincolnshire, and Orandi claimed that event earlier this month to book his ticket to Town Moor. The seven-year-old now looks to secure the double, with Shane Foley replaced by Rossa Ryan as he also looks to become the first horse to prevail in both contests during the same season. Orandi will break from stall two carrying a 5lb penalty for his Curragh victory, but the winning margin there could have been greater still with a clearer run and the bay still avoids the real weight-carrying end of the handicap. On the same card is the William Hill Top Price Guarantee EBF Brocklesby Stakes, a juvenile novice that marks the beginning of the domestic Flat term. Dylan Cunha won the race last season with Zminiature and can do so again this year with Kamakameleon. The colt is by Kameko and is the second foal to reach the track from the Siyouni mare Moravia, a Group Three runner-up when trained by Ger Lyons during her career. In the Listed William Hill Best Odds Guaranteed Cammidge Trophy Stakes, it is Karl Burke's Marshman who can go one better than last season's effort to come out on top. The five-year-old went down by just a neck in the race last term, finishing behind William Haggas' subsequent Group One-winner Montassib. Marshman's season did not go to plan thereafter, but he has since been gelded and given a wind operation and he returned to action this year in fantastic form. A win on the all-weather at Newcastle was followed by a Listed success in Lingfield's Kachy Stakes, after which he was beaten half a length when the runner-up in Southwell's Hever Sprint having stepped down in trip to five furlongs. He now returns to six furlongs race fit, something that cannot be said for his run last year when he lined up for the contest after a 259-day break and still nearly got his head in front. Over the jumps, it is surely Sine Nomine's time to shine at Stratford, where she contests the Green Diamond Handicap Chase. Fiona Needham's mare won the St. James's Place Festival Challenge Cup Open Hunters' Chase at the Cheltenham Festival last term but has been desperately unlucky this season. Her runs in the Bud Booth Mares' Chase at Market Rasen and the Rowland Meyrick at Wetherby were both cut short as she unseated her rider and fell, and on return to Cheltenham she was kicked at the start and eventually pulled up in the Kim Muir. Her luck has to turn at some point and in a small field at Stratford, she is well able to shake off the misfortune of the season so far under Brian Hughes.
