ADRESTIA LOOKS AN ACE AT WINDSOR

By Anita Chambers, PA

Adrestia looked a promising filly in the first half of last season and can begin her three-year-old campaign with a win in the Fitzdares Sprint Series Handicap at Windsor. By Havana Grey, a massive influence of speed, she made her debut behind subsequent Lowther Stakes winner Celandine and was not disgraced. Simon and Ed Crisford thought so highly of her she went to Royal Ascot for the Queen Mary, where she finished 11th of 24. She then had no trouble breaking her maiden at Yarmouth before also winning on her handicap debut off a mark of 82 at Sandown. Back up in class for a Listed race at Newbury where she was sent off favourite, she lost all chance coming out of the stalls and on her final outing at Chester she was too keen and when she was eventually dropped in to get cover it meant she had to circumnavigate the field to challenge. Any horse can be forgiven a run at Chester and connections clearly think
