IVANE CAN PROVE A GIFT

TO SOUTHWELL PUNTERS

By Josh Luckhurst, Press Association

Ivane can shoulder a welter burden to victory in the Sign Lead Your Horse To Water Handicap Hurdle at Sedgefield. Trained by James Owen, the eight-year-old has plenty of stamina and last got home in front here in the Durham National. That was over three miles and five furlongs and he faces a quarter of a mile less this time, but it should not affect him too much. He actually looked like bolting up in the Lincolnshire National at Market Rasen on Boxing Day but weakened after the last with the race at his mercy. Last time out he put up a rare dull display but despite carrying 12st 1lb his class should see him prevail. Double Digits should build on his first victory over fences in the Canine Premier Flex Plus Joint Supplement Handicap Chase at Sedgefield for Ann Hamilton. The eight-year-old justified favouritism over course and distance earlier this month to register a six-length triumph and clearly has momentum on his side ahead of what will be a tight affair.

Harry Cobden's booking aboard Kom Tu Voudras piques interest in the Visit Irish Bloodstock Sales With ITM EBF Mares' ``National Hunt'' Maiden Hurdle at Huntingdon. Faye Bramley's mare is the only ride of the day for the former champion jockey, who will take on the role as number one rider for owner JP McManus in May. Cobden can make an early impression for his new boss with a strong display on the six-year-old, on what is her stable debut following Kom Tu Voudras' move from Willie Mullins' Closutton yard. Secret Des Dieux drops down in grade and trip in a bid to bounce back in the It Pays To Buy Irish Novices' Handicap Chase. Owen's six-year-old finished in midfield at Cheltenham on Trials day after weakening towards the end of an extended two-and-a-half-mile contest.

A return to an extended two miles should benefit as Secret Des Dieux finished first and third in his two most recent starts over that distance and it can help him get back on the winning trail. On the all-weather at Newcastle Sax Appeal drops down in class to maintain his recent strong form in the Join The Midnite Movement Handicap. Charlie Johnston's six-year-old has operated at higher levels over the winter, but disappointed earlier this month at Wolverhampton when coming home fifth of six runners. Sax Appeal has only featured once at Gosforth Park during his busy career, winning by half a length last August and will aim to keep his unbeaten record in the north-east. Factual is an interesting prospect for Andrew Balding in the BetMGM Supports Safer Gambling Novice Stakes. The Sioux Nation colt impressed with a winning debut at Salisbury in June, but had to wait seven months for his next start on the Polytrack of Lingfield. He finished three-quarters of a length behind Ed Walker's Northern Empire last time out and Factual can build on that display.
