Fortune favours Skelton followers

at Perth

By Chris Phillips, Press Association

Major Fortune can launch his season in the best possible fashion with victory in the Follow @racingtv On Instagram Handicap Chase at Perth. The Soldier Of Fortune gelding was remarkably consistent last season for Dan Skelton, winning two of his six starts and taking the runner-up spot in a pair of others.

The eight-year-old recorded his first win over fences at Wincanton at the seventh time of asking in January and followed that up with second-placed finishes at Newbury and Leicester. He then was back in the winner's enclosure on his final start last season at Haydock.

Raised 5lb for that victory in April he returns to the track fresh after a summer off and is taken to start his season in perfect style. Skelton can make the long trip from his Alcester base worthwhile, with Kabral Du Mathan the selection to strike on his first attempt over fences in the Download The Free Racing TV App Now Beginners’ Chase.

The six-year-old won on his first two starts for Skelton at Haydock before striking in graded company for the first time in the Relkeel Hurdle at Cheltenham on New Year’s Day. That earned him a chance at the highest level in the Stayers’ Hurdle at the Festival when he tried three miles for the first time and was far from disgraced in finishing a five-and-three-quarter-length fourth behind Home By The Lee.

Back down in trip to two miles for his chasing debut, he might make up into a smart one over the bigger obstacles. Skelton can also enjoy success in the concluding bumper, where Still Game looks the one to be with. Tap Tap Shamie got off the mark last time out and can follow up in the Every Irish Race Live On Racing TV Handicap Hurdle.

The Shirocco gelding was beaten at short odds on his penultimate start, but obliged at 1-18 at Hexham in May, which if nothing else will have served as a confidence booster for Olly Murphy’s charge. Elsewhere, Inca De Lafayette can bounce back and edge Paul Nicholls another step closer to breaking Martin Pipe’s record as the most successful jumps trainer in Britain in the betting.bet New Betting Sites Novices’ Limited Handicap Chase.

Michael Herrington’s New Image can complete a Southwell hat-trick in the attheraces.com/marketmovers Handicap. The Frankel gelding moved to Herrington from David O’Meara in August and was eighth at the Nottinghamshire circuit on stable debut.

But dropping down to six furlongs brought out the best of him last month as he won for the first time in more than two years. He followed that up with another victory a week later and a quickfire treble is there for the taking.
