HOMBRE DE GUERRA CAN CLAIM AYR DOUBLE

By Ashley Iveson, PA.

Hombre De Guerra can make it back-to-back wins at Ayr in the Try Racing TV ForFree Now Novices' Limited Handicap Chase.Eight of the seven-year-old's nine career starts have been at the Scottishtrack and on his only appearance elsewhere, he finished second to CaldwellPotter on his Carlisle chasing debut.On the strength of that form, Nick Alexander's charge looked to have been letin lightly by the assessor when switched to handicap company here early in the new year and he duly bolted up, making much of the running and scoring withplenty in hand. The handicapper has inevitably had his say, handing Hombre De Guerra a 10lbrise from 112 to 122, but he clearly likes this place and there is every chancefurther improvement will be forthcoming.A chance is taken on Rafferty's Return in the racingtv.com/freetrial Handicap Hurdle.The 10-year-old has won five times for Rebecca Menzies and is only 11lb higher in the weights than when last striking gold at Newcastle last season.He was a tired faller on his reappearance at Wetherby in November and was alsowell beaten on his most recent outing at Doncaster, but the return to moredemanding ground conditions may see him in a better light. Lavender Hill Mob is backed to make it third time lucky over obstacles in theHazelton Mountford Insurance Brokers Juvenile Hurdle at Warwick.It is fair to say the 96-rated Flat performer has not yet translated that highlevel of ability to the jumping game, with a short-price defeat at Newcastlefollowed by a fourth place finish in a Triumph Hurdle Trial at Cheltenham inmid-December.His hurdling technique was better at the second attempt, though, and hecertainly has enough about him to win a race of this nature with a clear round.The Nicky Henderson-trained That's Nice can reward those who keep the faith inthe Watch Racing TV Free For 31 Days Mares' Novices' Hurdle.The point-to-point graduate looked a smart recruit for owner JP McManus whenwinning at this venue on her rules debut and the form is strong, with the runner-up Honky Tonk Highway going on to score at Listed level on her next startand te pushing Derryhassen Paddy close at Windsor on Friday.That's Nice, on the other hand, fluffed her lines as an odds-on favourite for afour-runner novice event at Cheltenham, with Henderson suggesting afterwards shewas showing signs of being in season.Whatever was ailing her that day, it was clearly not her true running and sheis given another chance.Sold The Dream returns from a nice little break in Kempton's racingtv.comHandicap and should go well if in the same form as when just collared close homeover the same course and distance on his last outing, when a well-backedfavourite.Fools Rush In has been in fine spirits of late and has the early speed to overcome a tricky draw in the Weekly Free Bets With BetMGM Extra Handicap at Wolverhampton.
