The Andrew Balding-trained three-year-old must carry an extra 7lb after opening his account at Beverley recently, where he beat the reopposing Gravitas by just over four lengths on level terms. Having finished third on his initial run, Tarriance was a popular choice on the Westwood and while Gravitas perhaps found his run checked at a crucial point, the winner never really looked like being beaten once he went for home two furlongs out. Gravitas has the weight advantage this time, but Tarriance looks the kind to carry on improving now he has
