BEAUTY CAN PROVE MAJESTIC AT NEWBURY

By Anita Chambers, PA

Majestic Beauty can maintain her unbeaten record in the Highclere Thoroughbred Racing St Hugh's Stakes at Newbury. Trained by Alice Haynes, this daughter of Havana Grey has victories at Catterick and Musselburgh to her credit so far and while this Listed heat represents a leap in quality, she can rise to the challenge. Both the second and third from her opening Catterick success have gone on to strike gold themselves, although her Musselburgh novice form is perhaps not quite as strong with only one other previous winner in the line up.

There was much to like about the way Majestic Beauty battled back that day to pip Cover Point by a head - especially returning from an 88-day break - with that pair pulling over five lengths clear of the third to mark them as a cut above. This appears a typically competitive contest, but Majestic Beauty should step forward again from her latest win. Invincible Tiger won a shade cosily last time out and her opening mark of 75 looks workable in the TPT Fire
