Room Fourteen holds the key at Goodwood

By Nick Grant, Press Association

One to be with on a solid day of action at Goodwood is Room Fourteen in the Virgin Bet A Good Bet Fillies’ Handicap. She did not do a lot wrong behind the upwardly mobile Silver Lake at the St Leger meeting – getting a tad closer on 6lb better terms than she had here on her penultimate start – and promises to be suited by coming back to 10 furlongs.

The daughter of Without Parole is twice a winner over the shorter trip, most recently off a mark of 77 at Doncaster in July, which makes her current perch of 83 seem feasible in light of her last two runs against Silver Lake. Adding extra encouragement is the booking by James Fanshawe of champion jockey-elect Billy Loughnane, who was in the saddle for that victory on Town Moor. The Andrew Balding-trained Donegan switches from the all-weather to the turf in the Virgin Bet EBF Novice Stakes.

He is bred to stay and was accordingly given a positive ride in getting off the mark at the first time of asking over a mile at Kempton. An extra furlong is highly unlikely to be to his detriment here under Oisin Murphy. Oliver Cole’s Brynmair Gold could add to a good day for Murphy in the Virgin Bet/British EBF Restricted Novice Stakes. He ran a lovely race on debut when Cole had gone to the trouble of booking Murphy so while he was sent off 16-1, connections clearly knew they had something decent.

With only one of his nine rivals behind him turning into the straight he had a mountain to climb but the fact he closed to within a neck of the winner, who had had a run, bodes very well. The three-day National Hunt fixture at Chepstow comes to a close and the whisper is those waiting for the lucky last might be rewarded with Too Many Acres in the Wasdell Group Open National Hunt Flat Race.

Although unraced, the four-year-old has had the Ditchheat dogs barking and it will be interesting to see where he figures in the market for Paul Nicholls. Princess Day is the potential star attraction in the DragonBet/EBF Mares' "National Hunt" Novices' Hurdle.

A €170,000 purchase at the 2025 Punchestown Festival after winning her sole start in the Irish point-to-point field, the five-year-old made a winning bumper debut at this venue last December and followed up in some style at Newbury to earn herself a trip to Aintree in the spring.

She was bitterly disappointing at Grade Two level on Merseyside, but she can be forgiven one clearly below-par run at the end of the season and reward those who keep the faith on her seasonal and hurdling debut.

The Twiston-Davies team are always worth following at this time of year and Leader Crik can continue their good autumn form with victory in the DragonBet Cefnogi Rasio Ceffylau Cymreig Handicap Hurdle.

The Irish point-to-point recruit was well beaten on his hurdling debut at Cheltenham 12 months ago, after which he underwent wind surgery and missed a couple of engagements due to heavy ground.

However, he bolted up on his return from a break at Doncaster in February and with a decent surface in his favour, Leader Crik can make a successful reappearance and handicap debut in Monmouthshire.
