Kalokalo can collect at Southwell

By Nick Grant, Press Association Sport

Kalokalo looks certain to give his supporters a good run for their money in the Sky Sports Racing Virgin 512 Handicap at Southwell. The Charlie Hills-trained three-year-old is a model of consistency and was a little unfortunate not to make it two wins on the bounce when second at Nottingham last time out. He probably had the misfortune to bump into a well-treated winner that day at Colwick Park and the handicapper probably thought so too, raising him a couple of pounds for it. He is 0-2 on the all-weather, but went well over course and distance in April and should do so again. Noble Guest has a similar all-weather record but his turn is near so he is worth following in division two of the attheraces.com/marketmovers Handicap. George Margaron's gelding is most likely to be spotted at Yarmouth, but he ran a sound race at Newmarket last month and is on a 21lb lower mark now than when winning at the aforementioned seaside venue in September last year. Buzz Box has claims in the feature Download The At The Races App Handicap. Three times a winner for Bryan Smart, he is now with Michael Herrington and performed with credit on his first outing for his new stable. That was at Newcastle in January off a 51lb higher mark than when last seen, which was in March last year. Assuming nothing has been amiss between Newcastle and now, he is worth a look. Hamda's Joy would not be winning out of turn if she can get her head in front in the Sky Sports Racing Virgin 512 EBF Fillies' Restricted Novice Stakes. She has not been out of the first three in four starts and has been quite well fancied on all of them, being odds on when third at Newcastle on her second run. Tom Clover's charge was second again last time, but seemed to enjoy the first go at seven furlongs and she stays at that trip. North of the border, it is worth noting that Clifford Lee only has one ride for Karl Burke in the Ayrshire Magazine Community EBF Maiden Stakes. The Spigot Lodge handler’s retained jockey will hope to keep the yard’s tremendous record with two-year-olds as Instant Force makes his debut at Ayr. Bought for 75,000 guineas, the son of Unfortunately, a horse that Lee won on as an apprentice in 2017, starts over six furlongs, which his pedigree suggests will suit. Celeborn can bounce back from Epsom disappointment by winning the HKJC World Pool Handicap for the in-form pair of George Boughey and Billy Loughnane. Bearing the same silks of the late Sheikh Mohammed Obaid as Boughey’s 2000 Guineas and St James’s Palace Stakes victor Bow Echo, the slight ease in class and trip could rejuvenate the four-year-old Postponed colt despite top-weight. Over obstacles at Market Rasen, Regal Renaissance can continue her winning trend for Jack Jones in the Sun Racing Summer Jumps Championship Handicap Chase. The eight-year-old has been a picture of consistency since the start of 2026, finishing fourth and second before winning on her final appearance for Henry Daly in May. Regal Renaissance then joined Jones and won by nine lengths on debut last month at Uttoxeter and with champion jockey Sean Bowen back on board, it is hard to look past this evergreen mare. The Bowen family could have a successful day in Lincolnshire with Sean’s brothers Mickey and James combining in the Malton Marquee’s Maiden Hurdle earlier in the day. Mickey’s Way Maker has two bumper victories next to his name and has finished third and second in three starts over hurdles, unseating Shane Fenelon last week at Uttoxeter. James Bowen returns to the saddle after earning those place honours.
