SWEET ON SURREY BELLE CHANCE AT SEDGEFIELD By Ashley Iveson, PA

Surrey Belle is difficult to oppose as she bids to open her account over obstacles in the Sedgefield Racecourse Maiden Hurdle. Rated in the mid-70s following three wins on the Flat for Hughie Morrison, the five-year-old changed hands for 70,000 guineas in October and joined Adrian Keatley. The Golden Horn mare switched to the jumping game at Catterick over the Christmas period and shaped with plenty of encouragement in finishing a close second to Siog Geal, who had previously taken that spot in a Listed bumper at Cheltenham and has since run with credit in a strong race at Windsor. A reproduction of that run may well be enough to see Surrey Belle go one better in what looks a fairly weak contest. The Fergal O'Brien-trained Jakana sets a decent standard in the Vickers.Bet Independent Family Owned Bookmaker Mares' Novices' Hurdle. Having been placed in a bumper and on her hurdling debut, the six-year-old tasted victory for the first time when making much of the running at Southwell last month and that looks strong form for the grade, with both the runner-up Crazierthandaisy and the third placed Jesuila Des Mottes winning since. As the only runner on the card for trainer Fergal O'Brien and only ride for Jonathan Burke, Jakana has the look of a good thing. Raffles Wonder may be able to give weight and a beating to his three rivals in the MW Paving & Groundworks Handicap Chase. The eight-year-old won a Sedgefield bumper a couple of years ago for local trainer Rebecca Menzies and has since added a runaway victory over hurdles at Hexham to his tally. He made a promising start over fences when third on his Hexham reappearance last month, so it was a little disappointing he could only finish a well-beaten fourth at Ayr last time. However, the less demanding nature of Sedgefield is expected to see him in a better light. Leading Swoop can finally break his duck in the BetGoodwin Download The App Handicap Chase at Fontwell. Although winless in 13 starts to date, the nine-year-old has been placed on five occasions and four of those creditable runs have come at this track. He picked up the silver medal on his most recent visit, just getting going too late, and this looks a good opportunity for him to go one better. Kap Ouest gets the vote in the BetGoodwin Best New UK Bookie EBF 'National Hunt' Novices' Hurdle. Harry Fry's six-year-old has been unfortunate to bump into some useful performers in the early part of his career, placing behind Captain Bellamy in a Chepstow bumper on debut before further podium finishes behind Valgrand and Royal Infantry on his first couple of attempts over hurdles. It was no therefore no surprise to see him reward odds-on backers with a clear-cut win at Exeter last time and while he faces a couple of talented rivals in the hat-trick seeking Epic West and the similarly rated Glynn Brae, Kap Ouest is fancied to come out on top.
