ENVOY LOOKS REGAL AT WINDSOR

By Anita Chambers, PA

Regal Envoy hit the bar at Windsor last time out but can go one place better in the Fitzdares Sprint Series Handicap back at that track. The six-year-old has been in fine form so far this term, twice making the frame as well as claiming a Newmarket victory on his penultimate start. Fourth on his initial run at Bath at the start of April, Regal Envoy showed the benefit of that outing when seeing off the reopposing Toca Madera by a length at the Craven meeting, with the latter 3lb better off this time. Regal Envoy has already demonstrated his revised perch of 88 is not beyond his abilities though, having been beaten just half a length when tried over six furlongs at Windsor earlier in the month. The longer trip was possibly a stretch so dropping back here should suit. It could pay to keep faith with Starlit Spice in the British Stallion Studs EBF Fillies' Novice Stakes. Two runs have yet to yield any joy so far, but an initial second to Formal looked a decent effort while her return fourth at Haydock in April could be upgraded a little. Beaten just a length and half, Starlit Spice made up plenty of ground from the back and should be sharper for the outing. First Officer remains a pretty consistent performer and can go well again in the Knightsbridge Circle Handicap. He raced prominently on his first start of the year before dropping away at the finish, coming home fourth beaten just over two lengths over 10 furlongs. Jane Chapple-Hyam edges up slightly in trip here to just short of a mile and a half, but given he finished fourth in a heavy-ground November Handicap a couple of years ago, the distance should not be an issue. At Redcar, Cadarn can make it a course and distance double in the Marske Fabrication & Engineering Straight Mile Handicap. The four-year-old landed a Straight Mile Qualifier last month, racing from a 3lb lower mark to register a length victory over Rhythm Master as he dropped back from middle distances. He did not enjoy an ideal run that day, so there could be something more to come at this shorter trip. Crown's Lady is the pick in the pricedup.bet Fillies' Handicap at Carlisle, having won one of her two starts for trainer Ed Bethell, who has his yard in fine form at present. Flash Harry is one to note on his return in the Enjoy Summer Racing At Wolverhampton Racecourse Restricted Maiden Stakes at Wolverhampton. He was narrowly beaten by The Lady With The Lamp on his only juvenile start for Sylvester Kirk, with that form looking strong as the winner has gone on to claim three Listed triumphs. He is now with Clive Cox.
