HAVANA CAN MAKE SUCCESSFUL RETURN AT THIRSK

By Josh Luckhurst, Press Association

Deep Havana can defy top weight and make a successful return to action on his debut for Hamad Al Jehani in the Weatherbys Global Stallions App Handicap at Thirsk. The light-raced five-year-old moved to Newmarket from Qatar in May, having had a previous spell in the United Kingdom as a juvenile winner with Hilal Kobeissi. Wathnan Racing-owned, Deep Havana was last seen on track in Qatar in April 2025, so he will have to shake off some ring rust in North Yorkshire following a 442-day absence. However, he is the highest-rated horse in the field and retained jockey James Doyle makes the trip north for his only ride of the day, which is a telling point of the Havana Grey's colt's chances. Richard and Peter Fahey's Yafreh has his family's reputation to uphold in the Weatherbys Epassport Handicap. Unraced as a juvenile, the three-year-old has been progressing nicely from his three starts to date, with two fourth-placed finishes and a second last time out. Yafreh is a full-brother to Listed winner Al Mubhir and half-brother to Yabher so the Frankel colt has a lot to live up to, but he remains unexposed and should continue to improve. Shemiyala Star can go one better than her debut second in the Betfred Play Fred's #5 Million EBF Restricted Maiden Stakes at Epsom. Charlie Johnston's two-year-old ran well at Pontefract and only narrowly went down by a neck to Boleto, who went on to run in the Windsor Castle. She will no doubt gain lots from that experience and the daughter of Blue Point sets the standard. Alma Latina has the class to make it two successive victories in the Betfred 'The Classic Bookmaker' Handicap for Ralph Beckett. The filly has improved with each of her three runs, which culminated with an easy win at Pontefract last time out. Her defeats saw her come up against Felicitas and Peirian, who have since operated at Listed level and above, while she drops down in class for her first crack at a mile and a half. At Bath, Angel Ang can continue her unbeaten start for David Evans in the British EBF Restricted Novice Stakes. A 33-1 winner on the all-weather on debut, the Supremacy colt will step back half a furlong in trip for his first appearance on grass and that could be a wise move. Over the jumps at Worcester, Neigh Botha can make it four wins from his last five starts for Oliver Greenall and Josh Guerriero in the Worcestershire Ambassadors Handicap Chase. The nine-year-old won by four lengths on his reappearance at Warwick in May and the 5lb hike may not be enough to stop him from continuing on his rich vein of form.
