AFLOAT CAN SAIL HOME AT BRIGHTON

By Josh Luckhurst, PA

Afloat drops down in grade in her bid to earn a first win this year in the SkySports Racing Sky 415 'Confined' Handicap at Brighton. The Rae Guest-trained filly finished last term with successive victories over 10 furlongs, but has been down the field on her last two appearances at Bath and Goodwood respectively. The latter race was in a class four contest, where she finished run, but then took victory last time out over the same two-and-a-half-mile course he faces here at the Scottish racecourse. That was the Donald McCain-trained bay's second triumph in two appearances at Perth, with Brian Hughes back in the saddle. Luckie Seven aims to build on a winning return after taking victory by half a length following a 439-day break in July for Nicky Richards and goes again in the Auto Services Perth Limited 24 Hour Recovery Novices' Hurdle. On the all-weather at Wolverhampton, Giorgio M steps up to an extended mile for the first time under Pat Cosgrave in the Download The Racecourse App Raceday Ready Handicap. George Boughey's three-year-old colt won on his last start on the Tapeta and is in fine form after a valiant fourth at Epsom in August.
