DURAN LOOKS A HAYDOCK KNOCKOUT

By Anita Chambers, PA

Duran has hit the bar twice this season but can enjoy his moment in the spotlight with a knockout blow in the Betfred Supports Jack Berry House Handicap at Haydock. Nigel Tinkler's charge kicked off his campaign at Beverley last month, starting the year on a career-high mark of 83 after winning at York on his penultimate start in 2024. That perch looked to be within in his scope though as he was beaten just a length before going down by a length and a half to the reopposing Blue Day at Ascot. Duran was conceding 2lb but will be 6lb better off this time, which gives him every chance of turning that form around. He finished strongly after not enjoying an ideal run, so the effort can be upgraded slightly and a similar performance should be good enough for a runner who has proved versatile in terms of ground. Pearla can make it second time lucky in the Betfred Double Delight Maiden Fillies' Stakes. The daughter of Sea The Stars was beaten just a head at Newmarket on her debut at the start of the month, with the winner Zgharta having a couple of previous runs to her credit in decent company. Tom Marquand did not appear to be too hard on Pearla in the finish and that education should not be wasted. Silent Applause takes the eye as he makes his racecourse bow in the British Stallion Studs EBF Novice Stakes at Yarmouth. A son of Acclamation out of the mare Blue Willow, he commanded 1.4million guineas at the breeze-up sale in April and will surely be ready to sparkle first time up off that preparation. Two Plus Two is hunting a hat-trick in the Eastern Power Systems Handicap. Ed de Giles kept his charge on the go through the winter months, scoring over a mile and six furlongs at Wolverhampton in January before turning in some decent placed efforts. He regained the winning thread at Salisbury in early May and then followed up at Bath 10 days later, for which he must shoulder a 5lb penalty. Even with that extra burden, Two Plus Two is still 1lb well in here and moving back up to 14 furlongs having scored over a mile and three furlongs last time is no bar to success. Participiple is the pick in the Racing Value At bet365 Maiden Fillies' Stakes at Chelmsford. She raced just once as a juvenile but that piece of form now looks very smart given she was just a nose behind Qilin Queen, who was a Listed winner at Newbury on Saturday. There were a further two subsequent winners in behind that day and as a Frankel sister to Macduff from the family of Kingman, Participiple is bred to make her mark.
