JUBY BALL TO MAKE WINNING CARLISLE RETURN

By Nick Robson, PA

Juby Ball has not had much racing to date but from what we have seen of him he is well up to winning the PricedUp Daily Racing Boosts 'Chasing Excellence' Beginners' Chase at Carlisle. Time and again trainers state that Carlisle is the perfect track to send a novice chaser for their first run and Evan Williams has not been deterred by the long distance from his Glamorgan base. Juby Ball will turn seven in a few weeks yet he has only raced four times, for three victories. The only horse who has mastered him is the classy Sixmilebridge in a Sandown bumper in February 2024. He raced twice over hurdles last season, winning impressively both times, beating the now 136-rated Lud'or without coming off the bridle at Ffos Las and then defying a penalty at Chepstow a month later. He is clearly fragile but possesses a decent engine and should be up to this. Harry Derham and his famous golf star owners will be watching the John Budden Memorial British EBF 'National Hunt' Novices' Hurdle with great interest as their latest recruit, The Burren Man, makes his rules debut. Graeme McDowell et al went to #180,000 having seen him finish second in an Irish point to a horse Willie Mullins subsequently bought for E275,000 so a few agents must have thought it was strong form. Derham has made a good start to the season and has some promising youngsters, with this one looking like another. Another yard in strong form is that of Olly Murphy and his Pierrot Jaguen can make a winning start over fences in the Download The PricedUp App Handicap Chase. He has had three starts under rules over distances short of three miles but threatens to improve once tackling the distance. There is substance to his form, arguably more in the races he was beaten in at Cheltenham and Newbury than the one he won at Lingfield, but as a winning pointer he should thrive for this test. The first three on the racecard in the Bet On PricedUp Handicap Hurdle have incredibly been out of action for an aggregate of almost 2,000 days. However, the selection, Saligo Bay, has been in rude health of late, winning three of his last four outings. He appears to save his best for Wetherby but he has yet to run at Carlisle so he could like it there, too. We did not learn anything about There Runs Mary from her recent Ffos Las win as it came at odds of 1-33. She will have had more strenuous spins on the gallops but the jumping practice will at least have come in handy because it was hardly fluent. The Great Value Executive Box Packages @leicesterraces Novices' Hurdle at Leicester should prove tougher but she is still the one to beat.
