ZANZOUN CAN GO ONE BETTER AT YARMOUTH

By Anita Chambers, PA

Zanzoun made a decent start on debut and is the pick for the second division of the Join Moulton Racing Syndicate Fillies' Novice Stakes at Yarmouth. Trained by John and Thady Gosden, this homebred hails from a Classic Juddmonte family with her dam, Franconia, a Listed-winning half-sister to Group One victor Winsili. Zanzoun in fact only found another Juddmonte runner too good at the first attempt, keeping on at the finish over seven furlongs against a much sharper rival in Tabiti. That filly has since gone on to strike at Group Three level, giving the form a very pleasing look as Zanzoun moves up to a mile here. In the first division Ollie Sangster's Starlit Spice should take some beating. By Sea The Stars out of a Peintre Celebre mare, she is not really bred to be a two-year-old but showed up very well on her debut. She chased home Sir Michael Stoute's Formal who, despite disappointing in the Rockfel on very soft ground, still looks a promising filly. Starlit Spice closed to within two and a half lengths and she should only progress for that run. Charlie Johnston's Liberatus can defy top weight in the Get Raceday Ready Nursery Handicap. Only sixth on debut at Ripon, he took a big step forward to win at Hamilton on his next outing. He looks a typical one from this yard who should improve with racing. Epidavros is on a roll ahead of the Leslie Burton (Fisher) Handicap at Pontefract. After starting the year with David Loughnane, for whom she failed to win in four starts, the filly has really hit her groove for Katie Scott after a sticky start. A winner off 67 at Carlisle in mid September, Epidavros followed up off a 4lb higher mark at Hamilton and a further 3lb rise may not be enough to anchor her here. Sir Dinadan can provide Ralph Beckett with yet another juvenile winner in the British EBF Northern Commercial's Your Local Iveco Dealership Novice Stakes. An expensive purchase, he was well beaten on his first effort at Newbury but took a huge step forward when second at Haydock next time out. He will qualify for a handicap mark after this, but looks to have been found a winnable opportunity. The Clive Cox-trained Sky Advocate drops markedly in grade for the Get Raceday Ready App EBF 'Confined' Novice Stakes at Wolverhampton. Having been a big price when third on his debut at Salisbury, he was then sent to Ireland for a valuable sales race. He finished fourth of 22 there, and a race of this nature is surely within his capabilities.
