Constitution River can give O’Brien more Eclipse glory By Nick Robson, Press Association

The Classic generation has held sway in the Coral-Eclipse in recent years and is expected to do so again, with Constitution River a solid favourite at Sandown. Since 2018 the only older horses to get on the roll of honour are Enable and Ghaaiyyath – showing just how good they need to be to give 10lb to their younger rivals. As good as Owen Burrows’ Gethin promises to be, he could not beat Ombudsman in receipt of 7lb with the winner nowhere near match fit, so while there is no disgrace in losing to what might be the best 10-furlong horse in the world, it still leaves him a little short in this. Constitution River produced what many thought was ‘Mission Impossible’ in the French Derby, defying stall 15 at Chantilly, so he can be rated value for much more than the three-quarters of a length margin. He actually meets the runner-up, stablemate Hawk Mountain, again but he had the run of the race so it is difficult to see how he turns the tables. Aidan O’Brien is bidding for a record 10th Eclipse and fourth in a row and he is a short price to do so. Ebt’s Guard simply does not know how to run a bad race and with his yard back among the winners, he should go well in the Coral Challenge. William Muir and Chris Grassick had been struggling for winners until this week but in that time Ebt’s Guard finished fourth in the Royal Hunt Cup. He is clearly still on good terms with himself and the stiff finish should suit him. Asfoora is surely the class act in the Coral Charge. While the clock is ticking on her career, she is well known to UK racegoers and at her best is a Group One winner. She may have finished out of the places at Ascot but she was only beaten two lengths by Mission Central in the King Charles III Stakes so without a penalty she should be hard to beat. Arc Ole Ole can resume winning ways in the Betway Bet £10 Get £40 Handicap at Newmarket. Another fine advertisement for the training skills of Newmarket-based South African Dylan Cunha, the three-year-old went to Royal Ascot on a four-timer after ending last year with victory at Bath and picking up where he left off at Doncaster and York. A 16-1 chance for the King George V Stakes, he was ultimately fifth but was done no favours by his wide draw, having to drop in at the rear and still having only four behind turning for home, then finding a wall of horses in front of him. It is to his credit he was close as he was at the line and while the handicapper also thought so as he has given him a 4lb rise it is likely he has more progression in him. On all known form, Tiffany should record a deserved victory in the Betway Lancashire Oaks.After a trio of Group One runner-up finishes, not to mention third place at Ascot on Champions Day, she reappeared in a Listed race at Chantilly, not doing a lot wrong in again finishing second.
