INISHERIN CAN SPRINT HOME AT HAYDOCK

By Tony Kelshaw, PA

Inisherin goes into Saturday's Betfair Sprint Cup Stakes with a bit to prove but is backed to come good again at Haydock. The three-year-old disappointed when taking on his elders for the first time in the July Cup, finishing fifth as a hot favourite at Newmarket. However, Kevin Ryan has put forward a couple of valid excuses for that effort, notably that his charge was coming off a busy campaign in the first half of the season. He has since been freshened up by a two-month break and can hopefully now return to the form of his Sandy Lane Stakes romp at this venue and a convincing Commonwealth Cup triumph. On both occasions, Inisherin was able to travel strongly in a prominent position and quicken up late on, tactics which can help him to dominate once more this weekend. Without his presence, this contest would feel like a bit of a lottery, so stick with by far the classiest runner in the field to prove a cut above. Clove Hitch is another selection fancied to put a defeat behind her in the Best Odds On The Betfair Exchange Superior Mile Stakes. Andrew Balding's filly returned battered and a touch bruised from a Sandown fifth but warrants another chance on her previous exploits. The Juddmonte-owned daughter of Siyouni was not beaten far when third of 17 behind Economics in a red-hot Newbury maiden and was visually impressive when bolting up by eight lengths at that venue in June. Ebor third Oneforthegutter is a course winner and has solid each-way claims in the Betfair Exchange Old Borough Cup Handicap from an in-form yard. Shagraan looked a really progressive sort when beating a big field at Goodwood and was far from disgraced on a 5lb higher mark when fifth of 22 at York. Oisin Murphy takes over in the saddle for the Betfair Be Friendly Handicap and Mick Appleby's three-year-old looks sure to be there or thereabouts. Ascot can again prove a happy hunting ground for The Wizard Of Eye in the bet365 Handicap. The five-year-old kept on well to win the Victoria Cup on his first start for Charlie Fellowes and then ran a cracker when sixth in the Queen Elizabeth II Jubilee Stakes at the Royal meeting. He has had a setback since and will be returning from a 77-day lay-off here, but reports suggest the Galileo Gold gelding has been working nicely at home.
