RISKINTHEGROUND LOOKS A SOLID

PROPOSITION IN UTTOXETER FEATURE

By Chris Phillips, Press Association

Dan Skelton is closing in on 50 winners already this season and Riskintheground can provide him with a big prize in the bet365 Summer Cup at Uttoxeter. The nine-year-old ended last season on a high with a neck victory over Zurich in the Grade Two Silver Trophy at Haydock, and then chased home Glengouly in last month's Clarke Chase at Uttoxeter when giving the winner almost a stone. Riskintheground got back on the winning in the Perth Gold Cup three weeks ago, travelling beautifully throughout and running on well after being held up by Harry Skelton. Raised 4lb for that triumph, he can take it in his stride and give Skelton yet another winner in his quest to eclipse Martin Pipe's record of 243 winners in the 1999-2000 season. Breaking Cover is expected to take advantage of a drop in grade on his return from a 225-day break in the bet365 Handicap Chase. The eight-year-old had not been out of the first three in eight consecutive starts before he finished a tailed off last of six runners in the Arkle Trial at Cheltenham in November. A line can be put through that run as he was always likely to be outclassed on ground that did not suit, with all five of his career victories coming on ground with good in the description. Back in a handicap and returning to a sounder surface, Breaking Cover should go well if fit enough to do himself justice. Miss Goldfire won easily at Newton Abbot earlier this month and can follow up in the bet365 Handicap Hurdle. The Yeats mare has enjoyed her summer racing, also winning at Fontwell before unseating her rider back at track when going well. Stepped up in trip in Devon, she won by 11 lengths and an 8lb rise is unlikely to be enough to prevent her from going in again. Filibustering can make the long trip from Harry Derham's Lambourn yard to Cartmel worthwhile in the Oakmere Homes Handicap Hurdle. The five-year-old has won his last two starts over obstacles and is difficult to oppose as the trainer's only runner on the card.Magician Of Riga can complete his hat-trick in the First Windsorlot Then Voltaic And Now Teardrops Handicap at Wolverhampton. He broke his maiden at the sixth time of asking at Dunstall Park in early April and followed that up at Southwell. Raised 3lb and freshened up from a 60-day break, the son of Time Test looks well placed to again come out on top. Raaheeb puts his unbeaten record on the line as one of two British raiders in the Dubai Duty Free Irish Derby at the Curragh and is the selection to get the better of the home team. The Owen Burrows-trained Sea The Stars colt readily won an Ascot maiden on his sole start as a juvenile and it was impossible not to be impressed by his comeback win in the Sandown Classic Trial in April. Connections subsequently resisted the temptation to bid for Derby glory and Epsom and while he is stepping into unknown territory at the highest level in Ireland, he is expected to rise to the challenge.
