TWEE TO TRIUMPH AT KEMPTON

By Molly Hunter, PA

Willem Twee can continue on an upward trajectory to take the ebfstallions.com Conditions Stakes at Kempton. James Fanshawe's Ribchester gelding has gained an impressive all-weather record throughout his career and has continued to add to it this year, finishing third in both the Listed Kachy Stakes at Lingfield and the Group Three Chipchase Stakes at Newcastle. On the latter run he was beaten a length and a half by William Haggas' Montassib, a subsequent Group One winner, with other sprint stalwarts such as Kinross and Spycatcher close by. Most recently the bay was a winner at Wolverhampton, taking a Racing League contest over six furlongs by a nose from Richard Fahey's Marine Wave. The horse has been handed a 2lb rise in the weights as a result but he is clearly in form and has the ability to continue his rise up the ranks having placed second in this race in 2022. Also at Kempton is the Polytrack/British Stallion Studs EBF Novice Stakes, where William Haggas' Newlyn School appeals. The Dark Angel gelding was fourth on debut at Windsor before finding himself in deeper waters in a competitive Ascot novice next time out. There he was fifth of 10, with the winner the subsequent Tattersalls Stakes second Diego Ventura, and now returned to a less hotly-contested field, Newlyn School can get his head in front. At Catterick, Brazilian Belle can strike for Michael Dods in the Download The Raceday Ready App Nursery Handicap. The juvenile makes her fourth career start in the race having won a maiden over course and distance in good style earlier this season. When upped in class for the Hilary Needler at Beverley she was beaten into 10th place, but having gained a rating she made her handicap debut in a nursery at Thirsk last time and acquitted herself well then third. Now returning to a track over which she is proven, she can resume winning ways under Connor Beasley as her mark has remained static. On the same card it is Adrian Nicholls' Maywedance who can land the Catterick EBF Restricted Novice Stakes. The Mehmas filly beat only one horse on debut at Beverley but can be forgiven for that run following a bungled start that left her out of the running from early on. She returned to the same track to try again next time out and fared far better in a fillies' novice, coming home second in a field of 11 and making herself a candidate here.
