RACING TIPS

Meennaa can get her first win at the third attempt in the Unibet/British Stallion Studs EBF Fillies’ Novice Stakes at Kempton. Bought for 225,000 guineas as a yearling, the No Nay Never filly hit the crossbar on her first two appearances, coming up three-quarters of a length short over course and distance in May before finishing middle of a three-runner field on turf at Hamilton. Archie Watson’s charge has some valuable entries towards the latter stages of her juvenile campaign, so getting her head in front here would be much-needed. Alshera makes her long-awaited reappearance for John and Thady Gosden as she puts her unbeaten record on the line. The Sea The Stars four-year-old did not make her debut until November last year when she beat Godolphin-owned stablemate Good Old Days by a neck at Wolverhampton. She has not been seen since and will have to overcome a 246-day break, but if she shows that ability again she should go close once more in the Unibet/EBF Fillies’ Novice Stakes. Sarangpur aims to extend his perfect record to three races since joining Richard
