AHOY, SENOR!

By Nick Robson, PA

Ahoy Senor is taken to get the better of Bravemansgame in what could turn out to be a stamina-sapping Bet365 Charlie Hall Chase at Wetherby. With conditions set to be much more testing than 12 months ago when Brave mans game sauntered to victory, he can be taken on with the more resolute galloper in Ahoy Senor. Lucinda Russell's charge was still going well in the Gold Cup at Cheltenham when falling on the second circuit and while it was too far out to suggest what may have happened, what can be said is that he was moving well within himself. Of course, jumping did prove to be his Achilles heel last season, he never looked happy at any stage when well beaten as the 11-10 favourite in this corresponding race, but when he does get it all together he has shown more than once how big his engine is. He beat the likes of Sounds Russian, Noble Yeats and Protektorat in the Cotswold Chase and then after his Cheltenham fall looked sure to beat Shishkin at Aintree only to be reeled in after the last. The most competitive race on the card is unquestionably the Bet365 Mares' Hurdle. While it is only a Listed event, there will be worse Grade Twos run this season with Cheltenham winner You Wear It Well, Luccia, Kateira and the mud-lover Stainsby Girl all clashing. With the potential for You Wear It Well and Stainsby Girl to take each other on for the lead, marginal preference goes to Kateira, with Dan Skelton's good record at this meeting taken into account. She is arguably the least exposed, too, and her form against the boys at Aintree when second to Irish Point, with You Wear It Well in behind, is arguably the strongest on offer. Dashed Drasher may have more heart for the battle than Thyme Hill in the Bet365 Hurdle. Immortal can get punters off to a flyer at Ascot in the Grndon Waste Management Conditional Jockeys' Novices' Handicap Hurdle. A chaser in the making, he caught the eye when second to Authorised Speed on his hurdling debut and chased home another useful Gary Moore type in Givega on his only other outing. The five-year-old Saint Segal can begin his season with a win in the valuable Byrne Group Handicap Chase. Second in a hot race at Doncaster last season, there is every reason to believe he is still filling his frame and there are no question marks about the ground. He reappears following a wind operation. Harry Fry's Altobelli found things happening a bit too quickly in Grade One company at Aintree but back in calmer waters and on softer ground can back to winning ways in the Seat Unique Handicap Hurdle. There will be a few nervous moments for Nicky Richards as Florida Dreams lines up in the first division of the Argyll Bar Paisley

EBF 'National Hunt' Novices' Hurdle at Ayr. Potentially his best horse for some time, Florida Dreams won the Grade Two bumper at Aintree on Grand National day beating a Willie Mullins-trained favourite. He can hopefully rattle off a couple of wins before heading south for some bigger targets. At Newmarket, the rearranged Betfred Horris Hill Stakes can go to Simon and Ed Crisford's Telemark. He looked a very nice prospect when winning at Yarmouth on soft ground, and his ability to handle testing ground will stand him in good stead in this Group Three. Topsy Tiger already has a win on heavy ground to her credit and came from the clouds to win at Nottingham so she is of definite interest in the Betfred 'Hot Shots' Nursery Handicap. Another who will love the mud is Jamie Osborne's veteran Raising Sand who is down to a winnable mark in the Betfred Play Fred's 5 Million Handicap.
