FLUORESCENCE TO LIGHT UP RIPON

By Ashley Iveson, PA

Fluorescence can maintain her unbeaten record in the British EBF Premier Fillies' Handicap at Ripon. Ed Bethell's charge made a winning debut in some style at Southwell in October and picked up where she left off at Redcar two and a half weeks ago, again scoring with her head in her chest. The form of her Southwell success in particular is not too shabby, with the runner-up Chiringita having shown a decent level of form in defeat both beforehand and since. Fluorescence enters the handicap sphere on what looks a workable mark of 85 and appears well placed to complete her hat-trick for a yard that is flying high following success at York earlier in the week. Cosmos Raj has an obvious chance in the preceding BBC York Georgey Spanswick Southern Belle Handicap. Rated as high as 82 at his peak, the seven-year-old competes at a lower level these days, but returns to a happy hunting ground in fine fettle. Following successive runner-up finishes in the early spring, the seven-year-old registered a 10th career win off 69 at Musselburgh a fortnight ago, earning him a slight rise to a revised mark of 71 ahead of his latest assignment. Three of his victories have come at Ripon, so he clearly likes the place and looks sure to be involved in the finish once again. Similar comments apply to Zarzyni, who makes the journey from North Yorkshire to Newmarket for the Sky Bet Acca Freeze Handicap. The eight-year-old competed in Group races and Listed events when rated over 100 a few years ago and while he has perhaps lost some of the speed he once had, recent efforts suggest he is more than capable of adding to his tally from his current perch of 80. Following a luckless run at Musselburgh in April, David and Nicola Barron's sprinter got the breaks back at the Scottish venue a month ago and duly got the job done. He should go well again. Sixtygeesbaby gets the vote in the #50,000 Sky Bet Proud To Support ROR Handicap. Fourth in what has turned out to be strong novice event at Windsor on his introduction last summer, Tom Clover's three-year-old confirmed that promise when bolting up over this course and distance in early November, giving connections plenty to look forward to over the winter months. He returned at Doncaster at the end of April and while it was hard work, he proved he has plenty of tenacity to go with his undoubted talent to again emerge victorious and it will be interesting to see how he fares off an opening handicap mark of 86, with Jack Callan taking a very handy 7lb off his back. Low-key jumping action comes from Stratford, where Summerleaze can make it four wins from as many starts since joining Olly Murphy. She has been hiked 10lb in the weights for a 14-length demolition job at this venue 10 days ago, but that looks a far from insurmountable task for a mare at the top of her game.
