BEAUTIFUL DIAMOND SET TO SHINE AT BATH

By Josh Luckhurst, Press Association

Beautiful Diamond can show her worth when she lines up in the Whitsbury Manor Stud / British EBF Lansdown Stakes at Bath. Karl Burke's five-year-old is a high-quality sprinter with four wins to her name, three of which have come at the same Listed level she faces on Easter Sunday. The grey has also run with great credit at Group Three and Group Two level when collecting placings in close-run races so has clearly not found her ceiling at the Listed grade. She has not been seen since winning the Rous Stakes at Ascot in September last year so will have to hit the ground running at Bath, but her class ought to see her through under the returning Clifford Lee. Baltic Fleet can use his winning experience to good effect in the Droneart Show May 8th & 9th Restricted Novice Stakes. The three-year-old is the only runner in the race who has been in the winner's enclosure and George Boughey's charge has the addition on highly-rated jockey Billy Loughnane aboard. The Space Blues colt will have his sights on loftier heights after this race so could do with a second straight success. Mondo Man targets a hat-trick of victories in the Betgoodwin Sussex Champion Hurdle Handicap Hurdle at Plumpton. A versatile horse over hurdles and on the level, Gary and Josh Moore's five-year-old seems revitalised over two miles over the obstacles. He was fourth behind eventual County Handicap Hurdle winner Wilful in the Ascot Rotary Club Festive Handicap Hurdle in December before easing to successes of 33 lengths - over course and distance - and a length and three-quarters at Sandown after stepping up in class. On the all-weather at Southwell, Just A Girl will hope her luck changes on the synthetics in Heggs Family Handicap. She finished her juvenile campaign in stakes company having won on the Turf over an extended seven furlongs at Lingfield in August for Charlie Johnston. Just A Girl steps back in grade and trip for her season-opener, where victory could help her build back to those two-year-old heights. Pendella aims to build on her maiden victory in the Ladies Day Sunday 16th August Fillies' Handicap. Karl Burke's three-year-old pipped City Queen at Wolverhampton in February and should come on top once again in that battle, this time over a mile. Tread Carefully should make amends for bad luck in the Live Racing Streaming At Copybet Maiden Hurdle at Market Rasen.
