NO - MASK NO - ENTRY

For safety is not a gadget but a state of mind. Let’s all practice social distancing and wear a mask at all times.

NOTE:

If any Horse Race should have any Scratches before the race is close and the runners has been reduced to Nine (9) runners, its automatically becomes a NO UPS field.

Hannon to be rewarded for rolling the dice

By Josh Luckhurst, Press Association

Rollthedicebaby could be a timely winner for Richard Hannon in a race which his family have dominated at Newbury. The Herridge handler has won the Weatherbys Super Sprint Stakes on four occasions with Tiggy Wiggy (2014), Ginger Nut (2018), Happy Romance (2020) and Gubbass (2021), while his father Richard Hannon Sr, who co-founded the five-furlong contest in 1991, holds the record for the most victories with seven. Hannon Jr has five runners, but Rollthedicebaby appears to be the pick following a runner-up finish on debut at Goodwood in May before returning to the Sussex venue last month to score a cosy success over six furlongs. A return to the shortest trip appears ideal, and that could help the Hannon dynasty continue their stranglehold on the lucrative handicap. Song Of The Clyde has strong course and distance form ahead of his tilt at the Hallgarten and Novum Wines Hackwood Stakes. Clive Cox's three-year-old edged out Albert Einstein by a neck over six furlongs to land the Carnarvon Stakes here in May and did not disgrace himself when only four lengths behind Venetian Sun in the Group One Commonwealth Cup at Royal Ascot. That experience will benefit the youngster of the field as he eases in class and his track record, which includes a second-placed finish as a juvenile, puts him right in the mix. French Group Three winner Oceans Four can build on his encouraging run in the Hampton Court and add more black type honours to his name. Trained by Brian Meehan, the Zoustar colt outran his 80-1 odds at the Royal meeting to finish only a length and three-quarters behind Generic in fourth. With that being only his second run at a mile and two furlongs, which dispelled doubts about his ability on fast ground, he should be in contention for the BetVictor Steventon Stakes. Revoir can put her recent near-misses behind her to land the Ric and Mary Hambro Aphrodite Fillies' Stakes at Newmarket. Ralph Beckett's daughter of Study Of Man made her seasonal reappearance by going down a half-length second in the Hedge Of Oak Stakes at Haydock before losing by a neck in the Pontefract Castle Fillies' Stakes. She has been within a length of her maiden Listed success on five occasions, but she can batter through that door this time around. Spioradalta's brilliant recent record at Ripon should come to the fore in the valuable Ripon Bell-Ringer Handicap. The Mark Walford-trained gelding has triumphed in each of his last four visits to the North Yorkshire track and is the only horse with course-winning form, albeit over a mile and two furlongs. He steps up to a mile and a half for only the second time in his 49-race career, but it is hard to look past the six-year-old son of Rajasinghe. Dylan Cunha's rare venture into jump racing could see him seal the Betway Summer Plate Handicap Chase at Market Rasen. The Newmarket-based handler has only had four runners over obstacles this season but has a interesting type in Mahons Glory, who won the Summer Plate Trial by two lengths last month. Since joining the South African's yard at the start of 2025, Mahons Glory has had a further two runner-up finishes in Lincolnshire so that is another plus despite him carrying top weight. In the preceding Betway Summer Handicap Hurdle, Louis Veron is targeting a hat-trick on his handicap debut for champion trainer Dan Skelton. Skelton has had huge success in handicaps in recent years and this five-year-old looks another well-regarded sort after his 16-length triumph last time out. In the Cartmel Crystal Cup Handicap Hurdle, James Moffatt's Caught in yourtrance can add his fourth career victory at the Cumbrian track. Back on the flat at Doncaster, Egoli, who beat Song Of The Clyde as a juvenile, can get back on form with a much-needed win in the Download The At The Races App Handicap. Stellar, who cost €730,000, is one of two interesting newcomers for Roger Varian in the Every Race Live On Racing TV Fillies' Novice Stakes at Nottingham. Earth Shot can supplement her brilliant Ribblesdale Stakes success by adding trainer William Haggas' second Juddmonte Irish Oaks victory at the Curragh.
