DESTINY CALLING IN PETERBOROUGH CHASE

By Anita Chambers, PA

Ginny's Destiny can put a disappointing reappearance behind him with victory in the Trustatradar Peterborough Chase at Huntingdon. The eight-year-old was sent off the 3-1 favourite for last month's Paddy Power Gold Cup, but after travelling well and making his challenge four fences from home, he quickly dropped away and was pulled up by Harry Cobden before the penultimate fence. It could have been Paul Nicholls' runner just needed his first outing, as he did last term, so it is perhaps best to put a line through that performance and judge him on his novice campaign instead. He was three times a winner over two and a half miles at Cheltenham last season and only found Grey Dawning too good in the Turners at the Festival in March, before again having to settle for second behind Il Etait Temps at Aintree, with Grey Dawning back in third. Even with his 6lb pull in the weights, he still has plenty to find with top-rated Protektorat but Ginny's Destiny should take a leap forward for his seasonal bow and could be a horse on the up in what looks a tight affair. Nicholls and Cobden should also be on the mark in the opening Trustatradar Fully Vetted Tradespeople Juvenile Maiden Hurdle with French recruit Clotilda. This filly is a thoroughly experienced runner having notched up eight starts over fences and hurdles in France and after changing hands for £100,000 in September, she can offer an immediate return to connections. Eternal Angel was far too keen on his bumper bow but if he can settle better, he can make his presence felt in the Trustatrader Approved And Reviewed Trades People Novices' Hurdle. In a slow-run race at Ascot, Eternal Angel made Nico de Boinville's life hard in the early stages so it is to the gelding's credit that he was beaten just a neck at the line. Nells Son can follow up on a Carlisle win as he tackles the Richard Landale Memorial Handicap Chase at Kelso. He was perhaps a slightly fortunate winner as favourite Kalif Du Berlais fell but he nevertheless reeled in the 145-rated Unexpected Party on the run to the finish to edge a one-length victory. The handicapper has raised him 6lb for that effort but he may be able to defy that career-high mark. Cannock Park is interesting back over the smaller obstacles in the Bring Out The Best By Belhaven Handicap Hurdle. He has not shown his best in three chase outings this term but could enjoy a return to hurdles having been good enough to place in graded company as a novice.
